

Constructive Heckler - You ask insightful questions and help the speaker develop their arguments.

Destructive Heckler - You want to disrupt the meeting.

Police - Your job is to arrest people if they are being too rowdy or using bad language.

Hype Man or Woman - Your job is to invite members of the public to join the meeting.

Orators Aid - You try to take hecklers off to one side of the class to debate one-on-one, allowing the speaker to continue uninterrupted.

Thrill Seeker - You love conflict between the speaker and hecklers but stay in an observing role. You stick close to the hecklers.

Friendly crowd member -You want to hear the speaker's message and tell the heckler to be quiet.